

LORRIE MORGAN star of the Voghera Country Festival 2011

The Voghera Country Festival, now in its fourth year, is dressing up to the nines by presenting its first female performer, the exceptionally talented

Lorrie Morgan, Nashville Star.

On the 25th of June 2011 she will be at the Cowboys' Guest Ranch in Voghera, a resort famous for its unique atmosphere and for being the ideal place for great music, entertainment, outdoor life and family fun.

In what will be the singer's only Italian stop on a major European tour, Lorrie Morgan will bring her latest successes as well as the classic songs that have made her stellar, award-winning career.

She was born into a musical family – her father George Morgan was a country singer and Lorrie decided to follow in his steps, making her debut at age 13 at the Grand Ole Opry.

In 1975, after her father's death, she joined his band and didn't waste any time in pursuing her goals. She toured the country, keeping his memory alive and collecting fans along the way. The music industry soon took notice of Lorrie's success and in 1984 she made history by being the youngest person, at age 25, to be a member of the Grand Ole Opry. Not much time passed before she was offered a recording contract with RCA and then BNA. Thus began a string of successes including "Five Minutes", "Something in Red", "Watch Me" and "What Part of No" consecrating her as a star of country music.

"A Moment In Time", her most recent album, came out on Country Crossing Records, and is a beautiful collection of 14 country classics such as "Leavin' On Your Mind", "Cry" and "Are You Lonesome Tonight". The album, produced by Wally Wilson and Chip Voorhis, includes duets with stars such as Raul Malo (with whom she sings "Easy Lovin") and Tracy Lawrence (in "After The Fire Is Gone").

This great star will be performing at what has become the key summer event of Italy's country scene: there will be line dance contests, dance seminars, dj sets, stalls for great shopping and games for the whole family!
